Greetings,

The 2012 "Night at the Races" event to benefit the St. Joseph Montessori Children's Center is set for March 3, 2012 at Kreso's Restaurant in Bardstown, Kentucky. This will be our fourth annual event to benefit this wonderful school.

Prepare for a unique horse racing experience that has us "off and running". As we continue to strive to build on the fun festivities we had last year at the dinner and auction event, there will be multiple opportunities to feel like you're at Churchill Downs sipping on a mint julep or our signature bourbon slush cocktails and betting to "Win, Place, or Show" as you play the ponies. Get ready to watch actual thoroughbred horse races of video racing on the big screen too. You won't want to miss this fun-filled event that brings the thrill of racing to you!

Your participation will be important to the Montessori Children's Center and the future of the school within the Bardstown, Kentucky community. Many of today's leaders are graduates from our beloved Montessori school that has provided an incredible foundation in education that allowed children's minds to soar to bigger and better things in life.

Corporate and Foundation Sponsors are critical to making this event a success. Your organization will receive recognition as a partner in education to this Montessori Children's Center program which benefits the Bardstown community school students at large.

Please take time to review the rest of the information which explains the various sponsorship levels and the respective benefits and exposure associated with each. For more information, please contact Mackenzie Spalding, Event Chair at 502-833-3878 or visit the school's website at www.StJosephMontessori.org.

On behalf of the 2012 "Night at the Races" planning committee, thank you for your consideration of our request for support.

Looking forward to seeing you Saturday, March 3rd!

Sincerely,

Brad Spalding, St. Joseph Montessori Board Chairman
